MEGARRY—In loving memory of my dear mother, Jane Megarry, called so suddenly March, 16, 1958.
I miss you no less as the time passes on,
Than I did on the day of your going
For absence can never close the door of my heart
And the lamp of my love is still glowing
Your heart was the truest in all the world
Your love the best to recall;
For no one on earth can take your place,
You're still the dearest of all.

And who, though absent, is just as dear.
—Ever remembered by her loving husband, daughters and son.
